

Report of the Workshop on "New procedure of NAAC Assessment and Accreditation" in collaboration with THB College, Jamugurihat.

Date 15-11 -2019

The workshop on NAAC Assessment and Accreditation was organized by Chatia College on 15-11-2019. The main objective of the workshop was to create awareness and provide in-depth knowledge on the process of assessment and accreditation by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). The workshop was attended by a large number of teachers, administrators, and students from the college.

The workshop started with the welcome address by Dr. Swapan Kumar Kalita, Principal-in-charge, Chatia College, who highlighted the importance of the workshop and its relevance in the current scenario. The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Ajit Hazarika, principal, THB College, Jamugurihat, who is a well-known expert in the field of NAAC assessment and accreditation. Dr. Hazarika is also a member of the NAAC Peer Team and has assessed institutions in India.

The first session of the workshop was focused on the process of NAAC assessment and accreditation. The speaker Dr. Ajit Hazarika explained in detail the various steps involved in the assessment process, the criteria for accreditation, and the benefits of accreditation to the college and its stakeholders.

The second session was dedicated to the preparation of the Self-Study Report (SSR), which is an essential document for the assessment process. The speaker Dr. Nava Jyoti Hazarika, discussed the format, content, and importance of the SSR and provided tips on how to prepare a comprehensive and effective report.

The third session was an interactive session, where the attendees had the opportunity to clarify their doubts and seek guidance from the speakers on various aspects of the NAAC assessment and accreditation process.

Below are some photographs of the event

The workshop was highly informative and beneficial for all the participants. The speakers effectively communicated the important aspects of the NAAC assessment and accreditation process and provided practical tips for preparing the Self-Study Report. The attendees appreciated the opportunity to interact with the experts and seek clarification on their doubts.

The workshop was a great success and contributed to creating awareness and understanding of the NAAC assessment and accreditation process among the participants. Chatia College is grateful to the speakers for their invaluable contributions and the participants for their active participation.
