

Book Donation Event held at the Department of English, Chatia College.

Date: 03-05-2023

Time: 11.00 am

In a heartening display of generosity, the students of BA 2nd Semester of the Department of English at Chatia College, Sootea, Biswanath, Assam, donated 4 books each to their departmental library on May 3, 2023. The event was attended by the students of the BA 2nd Semester English Honors Program, along with the faculty members of the department and the Principal-in-charge Dr. Swapan Kumar Kalita. Mr. Bhupesh Kumar Chetry, Assistant Professor from the Department of History, was also present on the occasion.

The event took place at the Department of English, and the students were seen beaming with pride and satisfaction as they donated books for the greater good of the department. The Head of the Department, Dr. Anjal Boruah, Assistant Professor, Department of English, welcomed the Principal-in-charge Dr. Swapan Kumar Kalita and Mr. Chetry, and thanked the students for their praiseworthy endeavor.

The Principal-in-charge, Dr. Swapan Kumar Kalita, gave a brief but inspiring speech highlighting the importance of physical books in the digital era. He commended the students for their generosity and encouraged them to continue to cultivate a love for reading.

Ms. Ali Pathak, Assistant Professor, Department of English, in her speech, emphasized on how this noble gesture on the part of the students will go a long way in inspiring the students of the later batches. She lauded the students for their selflessness and urged them to continue to contribute to the betterment of their department.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks from Dr. Kangkan Bhuyan, Assistant Professor, Department of English, who expressed gratitude to the students for their contribution to the departmental library. He also expressed his hope that this act of kindness would inspire others to follow in the footsteps of these generous students.

The Sentinel
of this land, for its people

Book donation event held

A CORRESPONDENT

JAMUGURIHAT, May 3: In a heartening display of generosity, the students of BA 2nd Semester of the Department of English of Chatia College, donated four books each to their departmental library on Wednesday.

The event was attended by the students of the BA 2nd Semester English Honors Program, along with the faculty members of the department and the Principal-in-charge Dr Swapan Kumar Kalita. The event took place at the Department of English and the students were seen beaming with pride and satisfaction as they donated books for the greater good of the department. The Head of the Department, Dr Anjal Boruah praised the students for their praiseworthy endeavour. The Principal-in-charge, Dr Swapan Kumar Kalita, gave a brief but inspiring speech highlighting the importance of physical books in the digital era. He commended the students for their generosity and encouraged them to continue to cultivate a love for reading.

Ali Pathak, Assistant Professor, Department of English, in her speech, emphasized how this noble gesture on the part of the students would go a long way in inspiring the students of the later batches. She lauded the students for their selflessness and urged them to continue to contribute to the betterment of their department.

Guwahati English Edition
May 4, 2023 Page No. 7

The Department of English at Chatia College, Biswanath, is proud of its students and their generosity, and this donation drive is a testament to the spirit of generosity and kindness that is ingrained in the students of this esteemed institution.