

One-Day Workshop on “Introducing AECC: English Communication” organized by the Department of English, Chatia College.

Date: 26-03-2022

Time: 01.00 pm

Venue: Hall No. 1, New Academic Building

The Department of English of Chatia College organized a one-day workshop for the students of B.A. 1st Semester English Communication on 26-03-2022 at 1 pm.

Dr. Naresh Thakur, Associate Professor & Head of the Department of English, Biswanath College, was invited as the Resource Person for the workshop. His illuminating deliberations focused on the gradually changing scenario of the Education sector with the advent of the New Education Policy and what can be expected after its implementation in Assam. Stressing on the need for ability enhancing courses like English Communication in today’s competitive world, Dr. Thakur is positive that the AECC of Gauhati University will help to boost the employability of graduate students.

The workshop was presided over by Mr. Anuj Kumar Saikia, Vice-Principal, Chatia College who praised the efforts of the Department of English in bringing the event to life. The Head of the Department of English, Dr. Anjal Boruah, gave the welcome address and Ms. Ali Pathak, Assistant Professor, Department of English conducted the felicitation ceremony. The Resource Person’s lecture was followed by a Question & Answer session where participating students interacted with Dr. Naresh Thakur who answered every question to the utmost satisfaction of all present. The Vote of Thanks was presented by Dr. Kangkan Bhuyan, Assistant Professor, Department of English, who while thanking the Resource Person for his insightful presentation, acknowledged the contribution of all those who worked hard to make the workshop a success.

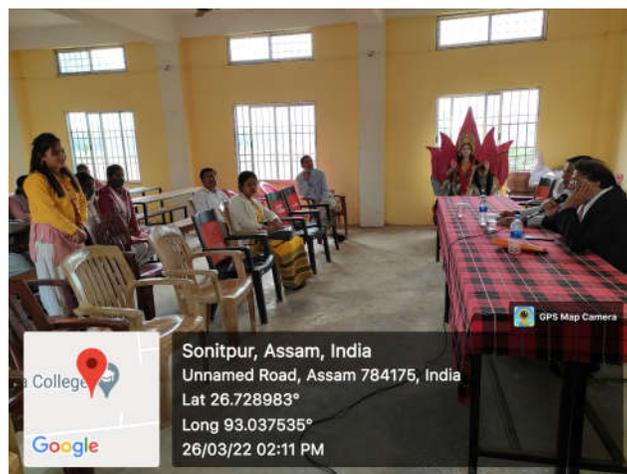

Image: Students interacting with the Resource Person during the Q&A Session.

Image: Dr. Naresh Thakur at the conclusion of the workshop with the Vice-Principal, faculty members of the Dept. of English, and participating students of Chatia College.